

ALBERTA JKA KARATE ASSOCIATION April 28 and 29 (2017)

Sharp Sensei

Sharp Sensei is a 6th dan (Roku Dan JKA), JKA instructor A level, JKA Examiner B with special Dan and qualification rights, and B level judge. He trained in Japan under 7th Dan Master Yasuo Sakurai for two years. Don Sharp Sensei is brought in to teach yearly seminars in Shotokan dojos in Quebec, the Yukon, Calgary and at other locations.

Having competed with both the JKA and NKA Provincial and National Teams for almost two decades, Don Sharp is known as a top-level competitor, but he takes pride in well rounded training curriculum taught in his program. No one facet of the art is left underdeveloped in favour of another.

Sharp Sensei is a National Level Instructor, was one of the BC team coaches for the KBC and National Team Coach for the JKA. He is the former Chief Instructor of NASKA and former President of JKA-SKD Canada. Currently Sensei Don is the Technical Chairman of JKA BC, and Technical Member of JKA-SKD Canada.

As a qualified instructor, and certified coach, he has the ability to instruct an individual student in their area of interest, be it in competition, self-defense, or fitness.

Please read the following information about Sharp Sensei.
